Polyester: Properties, Preparation and Applications

Deploying the concepts of disciplinary power by Michel Foucault and Nikolas Rose, it will be argued that mindfulness becomes a medicalized form of training and a tool for self-management, which locates it among contemporary disciplinary practices. One of the first important translations of Arabic literature was Robert of Ketton 's translation of the Qur'an in the twelfth century but it would not be until the early eighteenth century that much of Arabic's diverse literature would be recognised, largely due to Arabists such as Forster Fitzgerald Arbuthnot and his books such as Arabic Authors: A Manual of Arabian History and Literature.
