As is common studio practice, the band recorded the basic tracks for most songs playing together livedrums, bass, and guitars, and probably a guide vocal from Stipewith the instruments acoustically isolated from one .

The Slow Philosophy of J. M. Coetzee

It is one of the ironies of my high school life that I got one of my most painful paddlings from my favourite teacher. Given the centuries-long slave past and the drama of its consequences in their permanent struggle for full citizenship, African Americans show a prevailing need for a sense of the past and often cherish traditions in order to retain a sense of community, a community that has somehow faded away, torn by class and gender differences, political orientations, and all the pressures of capitalism and globalization.
