Death is not the biggest fear we have; our biggest fear is taking the risk to be alive - the risk to be alive and express what we really are. No deductions. A stone, a piece of any rock or bonze lives in peace in its own tranquility, in the silent coherence of its crystals and mathematic formulae, embodied in the transparency of quartz, the red grains of southern oaks, or in the blue translucency of icebergs, in the flexibility of water, in the softness of sand.
